True or false? Claims about Our Lady's image

A bomb once exploded at the foot of Juan Diego's tilma, but didn't harm it — but some claims about the image are false. Learn more at www.kofc.org/guadalupe, our newly designed webpage showcasing the story of Our Lady of Guadalupe and her miraculous image. The page will go live Dec. 9, the feast of St. Juan Diego.

Guadalupe: The Miracle and the Message

Christmas and the crèche

Since many public events are limited because of COVID-19, all Knights are encouraged to set up a family Nativity scene in a prominent place in their home. Families can also follow a virtual Advent Calendar, such as the one celebrating 20 years of the Christmas Tree Festival sponsored by the Blessed Michael McGivney Pilgrimage Center. Follow the center on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram, and learn more about how to keep Christ in Christmas here.

On this day in history: The Bombing of Pearl Harbor

This video from our archives honors Ensign William I. Halloran who was killed at Pearl Harbor. Ensign Halloran, who was the first K of C member to die in World War II, volunteered to join the Navy on Aug. 14, 1940 — exactly 50 years after the death of Blessed Michael McGivney. WATCH

Knights spoke, we listened

Thousands of Knights have offered feedback on what they want and need from council meetings; in response, the Supreme Council is offering new guidelines for council meetings. These guidelines include a new meeting agenda and other practices that will make meetings more engaging and satisfying for members. Join us for a webinar explaining the new guidelines on Dec.17 at 8 p.m. EST. REGISTER
