Weekly news for Knights around the world

This year has brought many challenges, but it has proven that Knights of Columbus only grow stronger during trying times.

As we look forward to the new year, may each of us turn to the inspiration of Blessed Michael McGivney and resolve to stand together as the strong right arm of the Church, leaving no neighbor behind.

VIDEO: The year in review

To honor our brother Knights and their service to Christ, his Church and to all those in need, we made a short video highlighting the accomplishments of our Order over the past year.

It has been said that “where there’s a need, there’s a Knight” — in 2020, we proved that once again. Even as we met challenges head-on, we advanced the mission given to us by Blessed Michael McGivney. Check out our end-of-the-year video and gain a glimpse of the accomplishments over the past year.

We invite you to share the video with friends, brother Knights, fellow parishioners, members of your council and others interested in the work of the Knights of Columbus — share the video via email or by posting it on Facebook, Twitter and other social media platforms. WATCH

Our job is not yet done

In this year that has been a challenge for many, we put our fraternal charity on display anew. If your situation allows, please help us to continue the legacy of charity established by our founder, Blessed Michael McGivney, through a gift to K of C Charities. DONATE NOW

Your favorite stories this year

A look back at our top stories and videos in 2020, determined by Knights like you.

2020 was a strange and difficult year, to say the least. But Knights continued to raise the bar for charitable work and faith formation, and we’ve been thrilled to feature these stories of hope in Columbia, Knightline and on our website. These stories have been a powerful aid to brother Knights across the order, and today we revisit the “Top Ten” most read stories by Knights this past year.

The Catholic Talk Show: The miracle behind Father McGivney's beatification

As we look back on an unprecedented year, we're grateful that the beatification of Father McGivney was a cause for celebration. Through radio, television, blogs, tweets and other media, Catholics around the world joyously shared Father McGivney's story.

Among them were the hosts of The Catholic Talk Show, who welcomed brother Knight Daniel Schachle, father of the child whose miraculous healing led to the beatification of Father McGivney, and Brian Caulfield, vice postulator of his cause for canonization.

Listen to the true story of the miracle that led to the beatification; how 5-year-old Mikey Schachle was miraculously healed; what doctors and medical experts said about the miracle; who Blessed Father Michael McGivney was and why he founded the Knights of Columbus. Don't wait until 2021 to find your agent

Many people mistakenly believe that their health history would prevent them from getting life insurance. In reality, life insurance customers are placed in a variety of health categories, ranging from a low-risk "preferred" candidate to high-risk. The best way to know if you can be insured is to speak to your agent. FIND YOUR AGENT
