Weekly news for Knights around the world

Since our founder's beatification last October, numerous reports of prayers answered thanks to his intercession have been received by the Father Michael J. McGivney Guild. This issue of Knightline highlights some of the latest favors reported as well as other information about Blessed Michael McGivney's legacy and cause for canonization.

Supreme Knight on Catholic Faith Network

Supreme Knight Patrick Kelly recently appeared on Catholic Faith Network, based in the Diocese of Rockville Centre, N.Y., and discussed why young men are joining the Knights at a time when many are experiencing isolation. He also addressed why Blessed Michael McGivney continues to inspire Knights today. WATCH

Learn about Blessed Michael McGivney's Cause for Canonization

Father McGivney died Aug. 14, 1890, at age 38, and his cause for canonization opened more than a century later. Dominican Father Gabriel O'Donnell, who serves as vice postulator of our founder's cause for canonization, recently reflected on the history of the cause during a webinar with the Blessed Michael McGivney Pilgrimage Center.
