News for Knights of Columbus

On Pentecost Sunday, May 23, the Church remembers the first Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit descended upon the apostles, who proceeded to heroically witness to the Good News of salvation. It was that same Spirit that guided the faithful Catholics who died for their faith during a time of persecution in Mexico known as the Cristero War. We celebrate 25 of these martyr-saints, including six members of the Knights of Columbus, on their feast day May 21.

Pentecost Is Personal

Just like the first apostles, each of us has a mission designed for our personal gifts and talents. Here are some suggestions to help you find and fulfill your mission. READ MORE
